

Cloth Doll Bodies

Pancake /Outline

This type of body is created simply by cutting the body shape out of a double thickness of fabric, which is then sewn around, clipped and turned. All-in-one bodies are also created by this method.

Stump

Without legs and often no feet, Stump Dolls are freestanding; instead the dome-like body is sewn to a rounded base.

Darted

This type of body produces a three dimensional shape, achieved by the positioning of darts at shoulders/ hips/sides/chest.

Seamed/Tailored

This type of body is made up of sections seamed together to create the shape

Gusseted

This type of body produces a three dimensional shape, achieved by the addition of a gusset usually between the two continuous head & body outline pieces.
